

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2528 - HB 2690

February 12, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes the Department of Human Services or the Department of Children Services to issue a restricted license to a daycare or child welfare agency when necessary. Requires proof of insurance before any license is issued. Changes the period of notice for license revocation from the current ninety days to thirty days. Increases the amount of time a licensee must wait for license reapplication after a denial or revocation. The department may issue a restricted license in such cases. Allows the department to remove a licensee's probationary status after all relevant standards are met. Allows the department to seek injunctive relief when there is a threat of serious harm and allows the department to assess civil penalties up to $1,000 for each separate violation.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes that the state will collect a small amount of civil penalties.
